

Replacement of FM translators with LPFM could result in the loss of K-LOVE, a family-oriented network that is one of the few encouraging networks on the air. The station promotes family values at a time when they are desperately needed to curb the increasing chaos in our society.